lover of his country is known as a "fahler." While there are others whose names have been mentioned in this connection, Memara Piltman and Vengba are leading in sentiment with Piltman the stranger of the two.

Slair Must Drive.
Give and take. That is the watch word with the Negroes in the 13th Ward. When the election comes, the Negroes will have to drive Slair out of office. Slair is a candidate for the Public Administration, but the Negroes are not going to let him win. Slair has been in the office for a long time, but the Negroes are not going to let him stay. Slair has been in the office for a long time, but the Negroes are not going to let him stay.

Opposed to McKelvey.
The National Labor Union, 13th Ward, indicates that J. N. McKelvey will run for sheriff in the fall. McKelvey is a candidate for the office, but the Negroes are not going to let him win. McKelvey is a candidate for the office, but the Negroes are not going to let him win.

By his opponent in the primary, William Weirley, editor of the Louisville News.

The official count of the primary showed that the Lyons received 60 votes and Wright had 79 votes. Since a majority of almost twice as many votes was needed to win, it was shown, the court held they were not sufficient to affect the result.

BOOKER WASHINGTON.

The enterprising quality of vaudeville stars west above par at the Booker Washington Theatre last Monday night, due to the excellent bill Mr. Turpin had booked for the amusement of his patrons. The combination this week is in a class with the best this house has offered and is pleasing the big crowd attending.

Corbett and Russell have made up a good thing, humorous narrative, satirical jokes and dancing. The troupe seems nicely singing "I'll Say It" then, and the music goes over with "Monkey Man." And then, a novel conversational song, kept a big hand at the close.

John Law, fully, the Irish contest an act with so many Irish artists, is appearing alone this week. Clarks is an open date in the third evening comedy. Tally have been of many a doublet. As a single and, as a result, the crowd is kept screaming from the time he enters until he leaves the stage. His comic buck-dance is a knockout.

John and Lady Abbott are third on the bill and, although they are toasting their previous hosts, they are well liked by the audience and get a big hand as a reward for everything they do. As a team they are good musicians in songs and dances, but makes the biggest hit at the close with a variety of dance. If you are not convinced, their dance of the "Tough Neck" leaves the audience clamoring for more.

Blaine and Brown, Clarence and Golden, close the show with a new act which does not fail to give full vent to the popular sentiment of the moment. This team's a variety of humor creates a hilarious bit. Among the numbers are a tragedy of philosophers followed by a comedy-dramatic song, "Four Paulinas," by Golden and a sentimental rendition of "Mammy O Mine" by Clarence. The act goes through a storm of applause and closes in a grand finale "If You Ever Get Married," which almost stops the curtain.

Joe Bright and Company. The Booker Washington Theatre goes will be delighted to learn that Joe Bright and his stock company will be the attraction at this theatre next week. Mr. Bright is a dramatic actor of rare talent and is a big favorite. He always attracts himself with brilliant performers and his patrons are always treated to a big treat of originality. Mr. Bright's strongest act is dramatic drama, but he also includes enough light comedy and song to please everyone. The engagement begins next Monday night.

Maebel and Bert Whitman, with the "Disc Boys," Aaron and Tommie, are on the Western Vaudeville line, playing here at the Grand. On Monday they finish their present tour they go to St. Louis. W. Williams is a rival. He will be news to many to learn that "Baby" Alice is now the wife of Aaron Palmer and is retired from the stage temporarily.

Dudley Reported Dead. A telegram was received in St. Louis Tuesday announcing the death of a popular comedian and comedian. The message stated he had passed away in Washington, but contained no other information. Dudley last appeared here at the Coliseum, with his own company, late last spring, and took part in the Booker's big parade and review to the Ninth Second Division hospital. Several St. Louisans met him at Atlantic City, during the K. of K. Encampment in August.

Noble Johnson in "The Midnight Man," the new Universal serial. First Episode Will Be Shown at the Booker Washington Theatre on Thursday, October 2.

Noble Johnson is the foremost colored motion picture actor in the world. Johnson, aside from this unusual honor, is the most popular colored actor and athlete that ever trod stage or screen. Such other famous fighters and athletes as Joe Corbett, Eddie Egan and Jack Jeffries are no surpassed with the athletic prowess of Noble Johnson, who has been taken into the ring and are willing to back their judgment and that of the thousands who would make Jack Dempsey step down.

Noble Johnson is to be the leader at the Booker Washington Theatre in "The Midnight Man," a Universal serial, and the most sensational and thrilling picture of the kind that has ever been finished on a screen. In "The Midnight Man," Johnson is shown at his greatest. The exciting stuff and the wonderful force of character and action that he has shown by Johnson will make his audience that much more they become enthralled.

ODD FELLOWS BAND 8TH ANNIVERSARY

The fourteenth Regiment Band known as The Odd Fellows Band, consisting is a great institution, and should be patronized by every colored undertaking establishment to the country. Every undertaker would just give twenty-five per cent of the cost by them from this manufactory.

Religious services will be conducted by Rev. Maxwell, Pastor of the 1st Baptist Church.

They are the saddest of all. They are buying their goods and are loyal to them. It is a duty every church, every secret order every individual to demand of every church, every secret order and

... of the Band with uniforms and musical instruments, which burdens he was compelled to bear alone, almost from the beginning of the organization.

New in the PEOPLE HOWL his undertaker does not get his from the Elroy Co., the only comin the United States. These men ould be encouraged in this enter-separated by Major F. L. McElroy, in the year 1811 with boys ranging in age from 12 to 15 (fifteen years); and from small a small party of men who withered all obstacles and opposition under his fatherly care and guidance until at this time, the Band is able to successfully compete with any Band in the city.
